FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crawford & Company® appoints Global Head of Forensic Accounting Services Martin Miller promoted to expand capabilities globally

LONDON (21 OCTOBER 2019) – Crawford & Company® (NYSE: CRD-A and CRD-B), the world’s largest publicly listed independent provider of claims management and outsourcing solutions to insurance companies and self-insured entities, has announced the appointment of Martin Miller as global head of Crawford Forensic Accounting Services (CFAS).

In the role, Miller will be responsible for the strategic and financial development of the business, working with the leaders of CFAS and the country presidents in each of the organization’s key territories to help expand its presence and establish opportunities to bolster the scope of services that the CFAS solution offers.

Martin brings over 25 years of forensic loss accounting and loss adjusting experience to the role. During his extensive career, he has worked on many multi-million-dollar financial risk claims across the U.K., Europe, Australia, Asia Pacific, the U.S. and French Polynesia. His expertise spans numerous business sectors, including heavy engineering, mining, manufacturing, retail and banking.

Prior to this role, Miller was the national technical manager of CFAS as well as head of Crawford’s Global Technical Services (GTS) team in Australia. Moving forward, he will also retain responsibility for GTS business activities in the region, reporting to Andrew Bart, global president of GTS and Tim Jarman, president of Crawford Australia.

Commenting on the appointment, Bart said: “The appointment of Martin as global head of the Forensic Accounting team is thoroughly deserved and a fitting recognition of the exceptional work that he and the CFAS team of accountants have achieved. He has an exemplary track record as a practitioner and business leader and will make an enormous contribution to the ongoing development of CFAS and our broader business activities. The services provided by the CFAS team form an integral part of our solution that enables us to meet the increasingly diverse and complex needs of our clients and deliver on our mission to restore and enhance lives, businesses and communities.”
